

This week's memory verse is

"For He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him".
2 Corinthians 5:21

Three Crosses Standing

Three crosses standing side by side,

Of broken law a sign;

Two for their own transgressions died;

The middle One for mine!

*Lest I forget Gethsemane;
Lest I forget Thine agony;
Lest I forget Thy love to me;
Lead me to Calvary.*

Okay, my marvellous, musical mates! Now it's

SONG TIME

Your Question Box!

Write your question here....

The Coverings on the Tabernacle

There were four coverings on the Tabernacle in the wilderness. Each covering was different from the others, and each one tells us about Christ from a different viewpoint.

Can you think of anywhere else in the Bible where we have four different views of Jesus?

Clue: four different writers told us about Jesus' life! Answer here: _____

The Tabernacle - God's dwelling-place

The Coverings of the Tabernacle - read about it in Exodus 26:1-14

Can you use the information in the boxes below to colour this picture of the coverings of the Tabernacle? The last lesson gave you information about the front opening. The pillars were covered in gold.

The innermost covering was made from fine linen with blue, purple, scarlet and golden cherubims embroidered on it. It reminds us of the deity of the Lord Jesus, how He was truly God and holy. Our last lesson told us about the meaning of the colours.

The next curtain was made from goats' hair. It was probably dark in colour, almost black. It reminds us of the fact that the Lord Jesus was our scapegoat, and bore away our sins. You can read about the scapegoat in Leviticus 16.

Covering 3 was made from rams' skins dyed red. These remind us of the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ - He obeyed God right to death, The red reminds us of blood.

The outermost covering was made from a special material which kept any moisture out. The material was called 'badger skins' in the Bible, but it was not from badgers of modern times. It was probably grey/brown in colour. It reminds us that Christ lived as a human in this world, and looked like any other human being, an ordinary person, yet truly God.

Read the story, and learn the memory verse. You can receive points for your work if you scan your e-lesson and email it to us - info@God-is.net or post to PO Box 1012 Strathalbyn, South Australia, 5255

Once you have learned your memory verse really well, recite to your Mum or Dad, and ask them to give you points (out of 5) Send your e-lesson in every week, if you can. Add your name to your e-lesson below! Add your address if you are posting your e-lesson. Complete 40 lessons within one year to earn a small prize.

Feedback Points	Memory Verse Points	Total Points	Name:
			I am _____ Years old!