

This week's memory verse is -

"But God commendeth His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

Romans 5 v 8

The Good Samaritan.

Read the story in Luke 10 v 30 - 37.

There was a man travelling from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way he was attacked by some robbers. They took his clothes, beat him up and went off, leaving him half-dead. Some time later a priest was travelling on his way down the same road, but when he saw the injured man, he crossed over to the other side. Then a Levite religious man showed up; he also avoided the injured man. A Samaritan travelling the road came on him. The Samaritans and the Jews hated each other but this one took pity on the man. He took care of his wounds and then lifted him onto his donkey, led him to an inn and made him comfortable. He gave the inn keeper money and told him to take good care of the injured man and if it cost anymore, he would pay it.

It takes a great act of love and compassion to help a person who hates you. God sent His Son to a world where people hated Him but He still died on the cross to save those people from their sins; there is no greater love than this.
